GOVERNOR WINTER.

The appointment of Col. Winter to the rather important post of Governor of Patagonia is another of those excellent measures which correspond with the prosperous and progressive policy of the National Government. For the last 12 months this distinguished frontier cavalry officer has, at the request of President Roca, resided at Viedma, discharging the duties of interim Governor: the legal Governor, Col. Alvaro Barros, being in too infirm health to pass the winter so far South.

During this interregnum, the people of Viedma, and the residents on the South bank of the Rio Negro, had ample opportunity to judge of Colonel Winter's talents and adaptability for the post. Without pay or pension, and merely to oblige President Roca, and to keep things together in Viedma, Col. Winter filled the post of Governor 'pro tem' to the great satisfaction of everyone in the district, and now that Col. Barros has resigned, the National Government, consulting the wishes of the Rio Negro people, has most judiciously appointed Col. Winter to the post of Governor of Patagonia.

All those who have properties on the Rio Negro or business relations, are aware how deservedly popular Colonel Winter is amongst the people, and the great improvements he carried out during the last few months. We congratulate President Roca, therefore, on the wisdom of this appointment; and, knowing as we do the wants and requirements of the farmers and estancieros of the Rio Negro, we suggest to the President the necessity of extending Governor Winter's jurisdiction to the North bank of the Rio Negro, and placing Pringles and all the camps on both sides of the Rio Negro up to Pueblo Roca within it.

Pringles is a little village some 20 leagues from Patagones and pleasantly seated on the North bank of the Rio Negro, it is a species of military frontier town under military rule, without authorities save the military commander who has a piquet of tame Indians to hold the place. It is high time that all this should be reformed. Pringles should have the same civil authorities as Viedma, it should have its own Municipality, and before all it should have its own agricultural colony.

There is not in this wide Republic a spot better suited for a colony than this little village of Pringles; the land around the town and on the river belongs to the 'ejido' of the town, and hence could be cut up into chacras for the peasant proprietors. The land running back from the town to the mountain, say a league or so, is admirably irrigated by a fresh water canal made years ago by Aguirre and Murga, and which brings the water of the Rio Negro from a distance of some 7 leagues to the very base of the mountain. The whole country hereabout is remarkably European in appearance, the climate is most temperate, the soil is richly fertile, and, but that Pringles has been so long and still is ruled by the sword, the place would long ere this have risen to great importance, since it has many and great natural advantages.

We propose therefore to President Roca that the new Governor of Patagonia, Col. Winter, take Pringles, Conesa, Pueblo Roca, etc. all under his jurisdiction; it can be all done by a stroke of the pen, and Dr Plaza, who is 'locum tenens' Minister of War, is the right man in the right place to carry out this great Rio Negro reform.

Viedma is very rapidly growing into a town of much importance; it has many great advantages over Patagones, which is right in front, owing to its improved position; the miserable sand hill upon which Patagones is built forms a check to the growth of that ancient town. Last year Col. Winter made a capital promenade or landing place on the river's bank with a handy little mole; all this, and many other improvements were carried out by Col. Winter without the slightest charge or expense to the National Government. He also had a census taken of the population and stock on the various estancias along the river, and when visiting the place last November we heard on all sides the greatest praise of Col. Winter and his energetic and indefatigable exertions to push the place ahead. The lands of the 'ejido' or suburbs of Viedma have been surveyed, and might be distributed amongst new colonists.

What Viedma, however, very much needs is a branch of the National Bank to facilitate payments, and to afford to the farmers and working people a safe place wherein to deposit their money. President Roca would endear his name to the people down there if he would use his influence with the President and Directors of the National Bank to open a branch in Viedma, as we know for a fact that the savings and earnings of the people have to be hid away in old stockings etc., and as the Rio Negro lands on the South bank, owing to the brilliant success of the Roca expedition, are now being stocked by people in Buenos Aires, a branch bank is much needed to facilitate payments for hacienda, and remittances to this market for goods and produce sold.

President Roca has given the public such solemn proofs of his desire to further the welfare, happiness and prosperity of the people, that we feel certain, when these matters are brought under his notice, he will meet the wishes of his fellow countrymen on the Rio Negro, who in that charming but distant country have had for long years so many dangers and difficulties to contend with, and who now merit his especial protection and support.

THE MURRIETTA LANDS.

The National Government has just come to a decision on the petition of the Santa Fe State Government to define the boundaries of that province definitely and declare property of the province the lands sold to Messrs. Murrietta and Co. of London, so that the proceeds of same may be received in cash or Internal Bonds.

The National Government has decided to refer the matter to Congress and ask its authority to ratify said sale.

The following is the decree on the subject:—

Department of Interior,
B. Aires, March 31st 1883.

Whereas—The petition of the Santa Government says:—

That it has sold to the firm of C. de Murrietta and Co. of London, 164 leagues of Public Lands North of the 29th degree of Latitude, in fraction 12 of the general map of the province (drawn up by the surveyor Forster) and within the bounds set forth in the accompanying contract, at the price of 1,500 dollars per league, payable in cash or Internal Bonds of the provincial Treasury issued under the Law of October 5 1880; and that in order to realise the proceeds of said sale, the Government of that province asks that the lands in question be declared to belong to it. And considering:—

1st.—That the terms of the Act of Foundation of Santa Fe, by Don Juan de Garay, which are put forth as title to the lands, have been modified by subsequent events.

2nd.—That clause 67 of the 14th Art. of the National Constitution assigns to Congress the right of definitely determining the boundaries of the Nation and of each of the provinces, which deprives the Executive of the power to decide these cases, at least when they are doubtful, as is the present one.

3rd.—That the Executive, even when National Lands are in question, has only power to sell them by public auction, and to the extent allowed by the Act of November 1882.

4th.—That, in spite of what precedes, the Nation is interested in the completion of said sale, as it will contribute to the carrying out of an enterprise that will bring population to vast territories which it is expedient to have settled on as soon as possible, no matter whether they belong to the Nation or the Province.

5th.—That the sale in question was effected at a higher price than that laid down in the Act of November 3rd 1882, for the sale of grazing land.

For all the foregoing reasons, The President of the Republic

Resolves

Art. 1—Let Congress be asked in the next session for authority to ratify the sale made by the Government of Santa Fe of the said 164 leagues, which ratification shall be effected after an agreement has been come to with the Government of Santa Fe in reference to the proceeds of the sale, until such time as the Honble Congress, by fixing the Northern boundary of Santa Fe, shall make manifest whether they belong to the Nation or the province.

Art.—Let this be communicated.

MR VANSITTART'S REPORT.

CATTLE BREEDING &c. LAND &c.

The number of horned cattle in the Republic of Paraguay is estimated at 600,000 head.

There are no breeding farms on which cattle of a superior kind are reared, and, generally speaking, little attention is paid towards improving the quality of the animals. Indeed, so much is this the case, that both bulls and cows are employed for breeding purposes, from the age of two years upwards.

Throughout the country the land is for the most part fertile, and yields good pasture. It can be purchased from private owners from the sum of 800 dollars (£160) to 1000 dollars (£200) the square league, though not to any great extent, since the greater part of the cattle-breeding land is owned by Government.

In accordance with the provisions of the Public Land Act of the 15th December, 1876, which is still in force, the Government dispose of their land at the rate of 6 dollars (£1. 4s.) for each cuadra (square), 100 varas (a vara being a little less than an English yard) to a cuadra, or, in other words, for the enormous sum of 15,000 dols. (£3000) per each square league.

These dollars consist in coupons of the Home Debt, the latter of which are sold, at present, at the rate of 31 or 32 per cent of their nominal value. The real cost of such land would, consequently, be tantamount to 4,500 dollars (£900) or 5,000 dollars (£1000) for each square league.

It must be remembered that, on the promulgation of this law (15th December, 1876), these coupons were sold at the rate of 8 dollars for each 100, that is to say, at 8 per cent of their nominal value; their price, as has before been mentioned, having quadrupled between the former period and the present time. This accounts for their actual exorbitant price.

In order to facilitate the rearing of cattle, a law for the leasing of Government lands was passed in the month of July 1880, whereby the Government lease first-class lands at 60 dollars (£12) and second-class lands at 50 dollars (£10) the league. Many landed proprietors have availed themselves of the terms of this law to the great advantage of the cattle owned by them. It is, however, to be hoped, that ere long a fresh law for the sale of lands, at a reduced price, may be promulgated.

The price of cattle in Paraguay, which had been slightly decreasing for the last few years owing to the increase of 'estancieros' (farmers) who took to cattle farming, has this year (1882) somewhat risen. This is owing to a very dry season, and to a stoppage of importation from the neighbouring provinces of the Argentine Republic (Corrientes and Entre Rios), on account of a large export duty per head raised on cattle exported to Paraguay.

The price of cattle, at the present time, can be put down as follows:—

Cattle indiscriminately ('al corte'), that is to say, bulls, heifers, calves, in short, all animals of one year old and upwards, taken together, amount to......	12 dollars a head more or less.
Oxen for the plough, &c.	25 dollars each.
Milch cows in calf, &c....	20 "
Other cows, &c..........	16 "

In every case, fat animals are comprised in the above enumeration.

The districts in the Republic which are best adapted for the rearing of cattle are the following:—Departamento Occidental, Villa Concepcion, Villa San Pedro, and Misiones.

All these places are situated on the left bank of the river Paraguay. In districts situated nearer to Asuncion, cattle-rearing is only practicable on a smaller scale.

The Rural Code, at present in force in Paraguay, although of a somewhat incomplete kind, contains provisions which regulate the ownership and the marking of cattle.

The greater part of the cattle now existing in the country was imported within the last four or five years, chiefly from the Argentine Provinces of Corrientes and Entre Rios, whilst the remainder have found their way there from the Brazilian province of Matto Grosso.

There has been a considerable increase in the stock of horned cattle of late years, and it is generally admitted that, in less than two years, the country will possess a sufficient number of cattle to supply the whole population with beef. After the war, Paraguay had to pay a tribute of nearly 800,000 dollars (£160,000) during the first years to the neighbouring countries for the introduction of cattle; these expenses will now gradually be saved. Cattle-breeding is, or ought to become, one of the most lucrative employments for capital, and should leave every year a clear interest of 30 per cent on the money laid out for the purpose.

The severe frosts during the winter time, and the long droughts which occasionally destroy so much cattle in the Argentine Republic, are unknown in Paraguay. If even a drought should occur, it does no harm to the cattle, in consequence of the considerable number of small rivers, lakes, and springs which are met with all over the country.

From personal inquiries and observations I was able to make during my short stay at Asuncion, I should say that the Argentines were the most numerous in cattle farming, several of them owning upwards of 6,000 head of cattle in the Misiones. At the present time there are a good number of foreigners farming in a small way, possessing on an average some 1500 head of cattle. A great number of natives and foreigners (chiefly Italians) are farming and doing agriculture together, owning from 20 to 300 head of cattle. The principal estancieros are a M. Patri, an Italian, who owns near Asuncion, on the banks of the river, over 7,000 head of cattle; and Mr. Gill, a native, who owns over 4,000 head of cattle, further down the banks of the river.

Cattle seem to fatten quite as quickly and reach a heavier weight than in the Argentine Republic, which is owing to the better class of grass, salt beds, and the abundance of small streams and permanent lakes. The average time employed for fattening cattle in Paraguay is from four to six months, on pure grazing land. This industry, which at present is so little worked in Paraguay, and which might become a source of great wealth, can be most favourably compared with cattle-breeding in the Argentine Republic, and although cattle is somewhat cheaper and, of course, unquestionably more abundant in the latter, nevertheless, the returns in Paraguay are more favourable than in the Argentine Republic, owing to the excessive cheapness of land, and to the present scarcity of cattle.

In order to give an idea how far a small capital in Paraguay might be turned to account, it can be said that a man coming out to the country with the modest capital of ten thousand dollars (£2,000) would be able to start cattle-farming on a very respectable footing. With this sum he could obtain the following things:—

Three square leagues of good land at 1,000 dollars (£200) the square league. Five hundred head of cattle at ten dollars (£2) per head, placed on the ground; the cattle to be over three years old. Twenty-five horses at 16 dollars (£3 4s) per head; and the remaining 1,600 dollars (£320), would go towards meeting extras and contingencies.

As regard cheapness of land, Paraguay offers great advantages in comparison with the Argentine Republic, or, at all events, with the great province of Buenos Aires, and excels in the extraordinary fertility of its soil, on which everything grown thrives with unusual facility.

The price of good pasture land, situated near the railway line in Paraguay, and, indeed, all over the country, ranges from £200 to £300 the square league. The best land in long settled districts of the Argentine Republic sells as high as from £15,000 to £20,000 the square league. Good land, beyond the railways, a day's journey or more from Buenos Aires, is not to be had for much less than £4000 the square league. Of course, this does not include the Misiones, where land of great richness can be bought relatively cheap. It must, however, be remembered that the Paraguayan square league consists of only 4,500 English acres, whereas the Argentine square league is calculated at 6,600 English acres. Owing to the great number of sheep farmers already established in the Argentine Republic, fresh comers are exposed to keen competition, besides which it requires a tolerably large capital to begin sheep-farming or cattle-rearing, even on a small scale.

The Minister of the Interior mentions in his report that, for some time past, great attention has been paid to the rearing of sheep, and that important establishments have been set on foot, with a view to improve the breed of these animals. It is, however, admitted on all sides by competent persons that the industry of sheep-farming does not prosper in Paraguay, probably owing to the climate, which seems to be too hot for sheep.

London, March 7th.

In the House of Lords yesterday Earl Stanhope moved the second reading of a Bill prohibiting the payment of wages in public-houses, the rejection of which was proposed by Lord Bramwell. The Earl of Shaftesbury, the Marquis of Landsowne, Lord Stanley of Alderley, Lord Brabourne, Lord Cottesloe, the Earl of Rosebery, the Marquis of Salisbury, Earl Granville, and Earl Cairns took part in the debate, and on a division the Bill was read a second time by a majority of 58 to 20. The Select Committee on the Irish Land Act was reappointed.

In the House of Commons Mr. Sellar called attention to the system of private Bill legislation, and moved a series of resolutions, the first of which, declaring that the existing arrangements called for the attention of Parliament, was accepted by Mr. Dodson on the part of the Government. Mr. Sellar withdrew the others, containing the details of his scheme, and the House was counted out at twenty-five minutes past eight.

The Queen held the first Drawing Room of the season at Buckingham Palace yesterday, when about a hundred presentations were made. Another Drawing Room will be held by her Majesty on Tuesday next.

In the French Chamber yesterday the debate was resumed on the proposal to take into consideration the question of the revision of the Constitution. M. Clémenceau spoke at considerable length in favour of revision, and said he believed it was desired by the country. M. Jules Ferry again opposed the proposal, declared that a revision of the Constitution just now was impossible; and made the issue of the debate a question of confidence in the Ministry. A motion was then brought forward declaring that the Chamber, confiding in the declarations of the Government, rejected the proposal to take the subject into consideration. The motion was carried by a large majority.

We learn from Brussels that fresh searches have been made by the police at the residence there of a Russian student suspected of complicity in Anarchist plots. A student at the Liege University has been arrested on the Belgian frontier with 12,000 francs in his possession, the destination of which is believed to be known by the police.

Our Geneva Correspondent says that the increase in the trade between Germany and Italy is growing so fast that the St. Gothard Railway find it necessary to supplement the regular service by extra trains. The increase is principally in coals and unmanufactured iron, of which England has hitherto had the practical monopoly.

Mr. George Latham, the Liberal candidate for Mid-Cheshire, addressed large meetings at Weston, Halton, and Runcorn yesterday, receiving votes of confidence. The Conservative candidate, the Hon. Alan Egerton, spoke at Middlewich.

At yesterday's meeting of the City Commission of Sewers the ventilating shafts proposed to be constructed by the District Railway Company on the Thames Embankment and in Queen Victoria-street formed the subject of adverse criticism, and it was resolved to bring the matter before the President of the Board of Trade.

Rough wintry weather prevailed yesterday over all parts of the United Kingdom, and temperature fell in most places, being as low in the Shetlands as 27 degrees.

A fire broke out at 1 p.m. yesterday in the mansion at Wrotham-park, Barnet, the seat of the Earl of Stafford, his lordship and Lady Stafford being at home at the time. The fire originated near the centre of the mansion, and spread rapidly in all directions. Three local fire-engines attended, but the efforts of the brigade were unavailing, as a gale of wind carried the flames through the building. By eight o'clock the mansion was totally destroyed. Nearly all the fixtures and family plate were removed, together with a large portion of the furniture. The Earl and Countess of Stafford went to the house of a near neighbour, Mr Christian, of Norfolk-lodge. The loss is said to be covered by insurance.

Telegrams from Paris say, Mr Byrne, if not released already, will be to-morrow.

The Telégraphe complains that the English detectives in Paris take upon themselves to arrest people. I doubt it; but if true the detectives are wrong. They have no pretence for exercising authority in France; and the Ministers, who are alleged to authorise them, are still more wrong.

Mr E Benjamin's Chichester won the Grand International Hurdle Race at Croydon yesterday, and among the other results of the running were the following:—

Maiden Hurdle Race, Mr A. Yates's Souvenir; Selling Hurdle Race, Mr A Yates's Souvenir; Qualifying Steeplechase, Mr T Cannon's Azuline; Selling Hunters' Hurdle Race, Mr Sherwood's Pixie; Stewards' Steeplechase, Mr J Davis's Magna Charta.

Yesterday the appeal of 'Bradlaugh v. Clarke' was again before the House of Lords, and the arguments having been concluded, their lordships reserved judgment.

There were 2,773 births and 1,590 deaths registered in London last week. Allowing for increase of population the births were 1, and the deaths 238 below the average numbers in the corresponding weeks of the past ten years.

At the Royal Observatory, Greenwich, the mean reading of the barometer last week was 30.40 in. The mean temperature was 43 deg., and 2.8 deg. above the average in the corresponding week of the twenty years ending 1868.

In the eleven months of the financial year the Exchequer receipts have been £80,278,201, as compared with £78,653,553 in the corresponding period of its predecessor. The Budget estimate of revenue for the twelve months is £87,197,000. Up to this time time the expenditure has been £79,343,704. On Saturday last the balance in the Bank of England was £6,671,739 and in the Bank of Ireland £1,099,823-

The stock markets yesterday were depressed by fears of further withdrawals of gold from the Bank for America; and also by the stormy weather. Home railway stocks declined from ¼ to 1 per cent. In the foreign department Virginia New Funded fell as much as 1½, to 49.50 on the adverse decision against the bondholders. Other speculative stocks mostly receded on balance. Consols declined to 102¼, ⅜ for money and to 102½, ⅜ for the account. No bullion movements were reported at the Bank on foreign account.

IRELAND.

Dublin, March 6th.

The report circulated by a Press agency that Lord Ardilaun's bailiff Flynn, who was attacked and slightly injured, had died from his injuries, is altogether without foundation. Flynn, who was only slightly injured, is now perfectly recovered.

The health of the prisoners charged with conspiracy to murder continues good. They all continoe to be supported from outside. Their families also, who, as I stated a few days ago, were in a state of extreme destitution, are now provided for—a result apparently of attention being called to the subject in the Press. Of course, the source from which the funds are derived is a mystery, but there is no lack of funds. I understand that Mr. A. M. Sullivan was offered £500 with the brief for the defence, which he refused to accept. The professional advisers of the prisoners are busy preparing for the defence, which in the case of the principal at all events, will be an alibi. It has not yet been decided who will be the Queen's Counsel who will be associated with Dr Webb, Q.C., in the defence. The case for the prosecution will be opened by the Attorney-General (Mr. Porter, M.P.) by whom the prosecution was advised, and who has already been furnished with proofs of the evidence. The Solicitor-General (Mr. Naish) will also take part in the prosecution, as will likewise Mr. James Murphy, Q.C., and Mr. P. O'Brien, Q.C., with probably Dr. Boyd, Q.C., and certainly Mr. Constantine Molloy, Q.C.

Kavanagh's horse, and the car to which it has been yoked for some months, are still in Dublin, and may be seen at almost any hour at the detective office. The actual car in which the murderers of Lord Frederick Cavendish and Mr. Burke were, according to Kavanagh's statement, driven away from the scene has been lost sight of, and its identification, for the purpose of exhibition at Madame Tussaud's, or anywhere else, would be a matter of difficulty, if not impossibility. Kavanagh, who, it will be remembered, stated that he got the car repainted after a time, was never the real owner of either the horse or the car, although the car was registered and licensed in his name. The owner was recently offered £80 for the horse and harness, but refused the offer. The cab and white horse driven by "Skin the Goat," have had to be "disestablished." The owner found it impossible to work them. The horse had to be sold, and application had to be made to the authorities to change the number of the cab—an application which was, of course, complied with. It is expected that the first of the prisoners who will be put on his trial at the approaching Commission will be Joe Brady, who, if the case for the Crown be correct, was the most active alike in the Phœnix Park assassinations and in the attack on Mr. Field. It may be as well to correct the absurd statement that Mr. Mallon, superintendent of the detective force, is associated with Mr. Curran, Q.C., in the private inquiry now proceeding at the Castle. Mr. Mallon confines his attention to the discharge of his own duties as superintendent, and in that capacity his services have been invaluable. So prominently active has he been that his activity has resulted in a display of hostility towards relatives in the North of Ireland, some of whom have suffered from boycotting.

As St. Patrick's Day falls on a Saturday this year, St. Patrick's ball at Dublin Castle will take place on Friday evening, the 16th of March.

The report of the Commissioners appointed to inquire into the constitution and working of the Dublin Metropolitan Police Force, will be presented to Parliament in a day or two. The Commissioners do not recommend any very radical changes. It will be remembered that the principal grievances complained of by the rank and file of the force had relation to the discipline, which, it was alleged, was necessarily severe and irksome, and to the less advantageous character of the pensions granted to the men who had joined the force since 1867. The Commissioners, I believe, recommend a slight concession in regard to the pensions. The question of discipline is a matter to be provided for rather by a change in the personnel of the superior officers than by any direct provision. The principal step in this direction has already been taken by the resignation of Captain Talbot and the appointment of Mr. Harrel as Chief Commissioner.

A secret investigation is about to be opened at Monaghan by Major Blair, R.M. This will make three secret investigations proceeding simultaneously—one in Dublin, before Mr. Curran, Q.C.; one in Loughrea, before Mr. Clifford, R.M., and one in Monaghan, before Major Blair.

Five sailors of the British barque Fanny, now lying at Kingstown, were charged at the Dublin Police Court to-day with refusing, without reasonable cause, to proceed to sea. The captain said the ship had been some time waiting for a favourable wind, and when the wind arose the sailors refused to go, alleging that a storm had been predicted from America to reach this country on the 10th, and that the vessel would have to meet it. The prisoners, when threatened with two months' imprisonment each, consented to go and were discharged.

It is understood that the Spring Show of the Royal Dublin Society, fixed to take place at the end of the present month, will be postponed in view of the outbreak of foot and mouth disease.

Cork, Tuesday Night.

An inquest was held yesterday upon the body that was found on Sunday on the Galtee Mountains. The identity of the deceased was not established, and there was nothing in the pockets to assist the constabulary in this inquiry. The body was found on a peak 3,000 feet high. The arms had been eaten away as if by dogs, and the remains appear to have been lying there for ten days. From the medical testimony it appeared there were no marks of violence, and death probably resulted from exposure. The deceased, who appeared to be from 35 to 40 years of age, was comfortably clad in a suit of tweed. Nobody was stated to be missing from the locality, and it was surmised the deceased was probably going from Tipperary to Mitchelstown over the mountains, and died from exhaustion. The jury found a verdict of "Death from exposure."

The strike of society bakers still continues, but everything is tranquil at present. The non-society men at work in several establishments have not come out from their work since they went in last evening. Some master-bakers have not had any bread baked for them since Saturday, so that the strike must press hardly on them. It is believed that a master-baker in the city has lodged informations against all the members of the society, and that they will be prosecuted for illegal combination. The operative bakers have held a meeting at which they determined to continue the strike. Some society men, suspected of breaking through the compact not to work until the non-society men were dismissed by Messrs. Martin, Thompson and O'Donnell, were beaten in Shandon-street this morning, but no one has been made amenable for this or the attack on O'Brien last evening. The houses of the master-bakers are protected tonight, and the men who are at work have to be escorted to and from their work. Those on strike have been drinking and carousing during the day and it is feared violence may be used. The glass in the shop of Messrs. O'Donnell, bakers, South Main-street, has been broken.

ENGLISH LITERARY SOCIETY.

The adjourned half-yearly meeting of this flourishing and popular institution was held on Wednesday evening.

The President (Mr. Ramsay) opened the proceedings at 8.30, twenty-six members being present. The minutes of the last half-yearly general meeting were read and confirmed.

The election of the President, Vice-President, and five members of the Committee was then proceeded with, giving the following result:—

President, J. T. Ramsay, Esq. Vice-President, C. S. Bowers, Esq. Committee—Messrs W Martin, M L Munro, A P Seedorf, A W Webster, W Tate, F R Hancock, W E Baker, E D MacKern, J Samson, W P Warden. As Substitutes—F Stearn, C A Davis, G J W Burton.

A hearty and unanimous vote of thanks was then accorded to the late Committee for their successful work during the last session, particularly that of the Secretary, Mr F Short. It was also agreed that a letter of sympathy should be forwarded to the Treasurer, Mr Seedorf, expressing the sincere regret of the members present at hearing of his sudden and severe affliction, with an earnest hope that he may soon be restored in health to his friends and to the Society.

Some discussion resulted from a proposition of Dr. Hiron, that the consent of the donors of the Building Fund should be obtained for changing its name to that of the Reserve Fund; but the proposition, being put to a division, was negatived by one vote.

A suggestion was made by Dr Hiron as to the desirability of providing another room for Essay evenings, instead of depriving readers of the use of the present reading-room.

A hearty vote of thanks was proposed to Professor Pressinger for his valuable aid during the last session as Vice-President.

No further business offering, the President declared the meeting adjourned.

THE PROPOSED KILMAINHAM INQUIRY.

To the Editor of the Daily News.

Sir,

On Thursday Sir Stafford Northcote will ask Mr. Gladstone whether the Government will grant a Parliamentary inquiry into the transactions connected with the release of Messrs. Parnell, Dillon, and O'Kelly from Kilmainham Gaol, with power to examine witnesses on oath. It is well that the country should clearly understand what this proposal means. The suspects in question were liberated on the 2nd of May last year. During the whole of that session the Government was exposed to irregular accusations of 'infamy,' 'intrigues behind Mr. Forster's back,' and the like. But the Opposition persistently shrank from any attempt to challenge the verdict of the House on the justice of the accusations. On the other hand, various members of the Government have declared that the public are in possession of all the facts, and that there is nothing whatever concealed or to conceal. This declaration has been made by the following members of the Cabinet: The Prime Minister, Lord Spencer, Lord Hartington, Lord Carlingford, Sir W. Harcourt and Mr. Chamberlain. In the face of all this Sir Stafford Northcote demands a Parliamentary inquiry, with power to examine witnesses on oath. In other words, the responsible leader of the Opposition declares before the world that he refuses to take the word of honour of a Cabinet of honourable gentlemen, and insists on examining them on oath and confronting their statements with the statements of other persons. The annals of Parliament during this century at least record no such outrage on the traditions of Parliamentary controversy. I confess to a wish that the Government would grant the inquiry without debate, but so enlarged as to embrace the transaction connected with the Salisbury-Schouvaloff Memorandum, the Afghan War, the hybrid occupation of Cyprus, and the French occupation of Tunis. The public would then know who have most reason to fear revelations of witnesses on oath—the present Government or their predecessors in office.

You obdt. servant,
Behind the Scenes.

March 3rd.

BLOCKADES IMPOSSIBLE

We commend the following Torpedo news to H.E. the Minister of War, with the Standard's compliments:—

Blockades no longer Possible.—According to an official report lately published in the Marine Feordnung's Blatt, it is the opinion of German naval authorities, that for the future an effective blockade has become impossible. The reasons given are that a fleet would always be obliged at sunset to gain the open sea, and to remain sufficiently far off to prevent torpedo-boats issuing from the harbour coming up to the vessels in the darkness; and not even a single ship could be left on guard in sight of the port without the risk, almost amounting to certainty, of being sunk during the night; whilst the port would remain open not only to light and speedy cruisers, but to any ship whose entrance might be desired. Under such circumstances, the probability of a few torpedo boats lying hidden along the coast would, it is thought, be sufficient to paralyse the action of the most powerful squadron, and prevent the possibility of any serious operations.

Torpedo experiments in Italy.—The experiments with torpedo boats at the recent naval review at Spezia, in the presence of the King of Italy, appear from the report of Mr. Beauclerk, secretary to the British Embassy in Rome, to be regarded by the Italian naval authorities as establishing facts of great importance. The monster ironclads Dandolo and Duilio, having steamed out of the gulf to fire blank cartridge, became, we learn, in a very short time enveloped in a dense cloud of smoke so that two torpedo boats were able to approach within 200 metres of them (that is to say, within the distance necessary for launching the torpedo) without being signalled, though these experiments were made in broad daylight. The experiments made by night at Spezia gave still more striking results. All the torpedo boats employed succeeded in attaining their object, and one of them came within only 10 metres of the Venezia. It is (adds Mr. Beauclerk) at once suggested by the above incident that had Arabi Pacha possessed some torpedo boats on the occasion of the late bombardment of Alexandria, the position of the British fleet might have baen very critical.

EDITOR'S TABLE

Yesterday was, in a meteorological sense, a lady's day, 'id est,' charming. There is no season in any part of the habitable globe at all comparable with a River Plate Autumn. The estancieros are in high spirits: One of them, whose name on a bit of stamped paper is as good as Rothschild's, said to us yesterday that, if the weather hold up for a month more, his unfortunate (!) gremio would have better credit! We hope the weather will improve editors' credit also. They want it far worse than estancieros.

We are happy to announce that Mr Carroll received yesterday several subscriptions for the poor little starving children in Donegal. There is a list at our office also. List of donors will be published in a few days.

The fine Lamport and Holt steamer Nasmyth (No Smith, some of our colleagues call her) has brought London papers to March 7th. There is not much fresh news in them, but, such as it is, we give it in another column.

An appalling accident occurred yesterday morning in Calle Rivadavia: A cart collided with a tramway from Flores, opposite Cranwell's botica, and one of the shafts cut off clean one of the legs of a German gentleman in the car, Mr Amelong, brother-in-law of Mr Hansen of Palermo. The unfortunate victim, whose leg was merely hanging by a shred of flesh, was carried into the 'botica', where he had to remain a long time in dire agony, owing to the usual ridiculons police formalities, which are simply an outrage on humanity in such urgent cases. He was subsequently taken to the German Hospital, where the injured limb was amputated. As far as we can learn, this terrible accident was the fault of the cart-man.

The prettiest sight in town yesterday was at the French St Cloud Fetes, where half the school children in town were to be seen enjoying themselves to the top of their bent. These popular fetes will be closed on Sunday next with all sorts of fun and frolic.

A letter has been entrusted to us addressed 'Mr J J Greene, s.s. Oxenholme, Dock, Havre, France.' The French Post Office marked on it 'Parti pour Plata." We hold it for Mr Greene.

We had a letter from our Mendoza correspondent yesterday. He mentions that they had a remarkably stiff earthquake shock there lately which almost frightened the life out of half the inhabitants. How is it that the telegraph told us nothing about this? Earthquakes are not every-day events, even in Mendoza.

The new Model School of Farming will be inaugurated at Santa Catalina on the 15th inst.

The Provincial Executive has sent a very important Bill to the Chambers, viz., one to deal with those hereditary foes of the farmer, the Locusts. Five paper dollars per arrobe of the insects will be paid. This will afford all idle hands in the camp an opportunity of making small fortunes. The Bill is pretty certain to pass.

There will be a meeting of the Sunday School children at the American M. E. Church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The Rev. Mr Thompson will address the children, and Superintendant Howard will read the Report for the past year and distribute prizes to meritorious scholars.

Mr. Bennett, of 195 Calle Florida, has just distributed a nice little brochure enumerating all the "specialities" he imports from North America. It is interesting, and shows what one man can do in trade when "Energy and Integrity" is his motto. The first pages are devoted to his "cheval de bataille," the famous Vaseline, now to be found in every house, in every workshop, in every stable, and even on our boots in the shape of the best polish extant. Its forms are multifarious. The list of other patent remedies, including the world-renowned Holman Liver Pad, is quite too long to notice here. Mr. B. is the Holloway of the River Plate. Like all his countrymen, he believes in profuse advertising, and he is right. He has attained a high position of confidence in this market and the patronage of the public through the fact that he never exaggerates the value of his wares. What he says is good, is invariably good, and hence his deservedly unprecedented success in his line of business.

A merchant's clerk played a nice trick the other night on a footpad he met at the corner of Artes and Corrientes, and who gave him the choice of "money or life," with a dagger at his throat. "What!" he said to his assailant, "is this the way you treat one of your own profession?" He then talked the fellow over, offered to share the "good thing" he was at the moment engaged in himself, took the rascal's arm, and, on reaching the corner of Artes and Parque, consigned him to two policemen there stationed. Cleverly done.

Mr. D. Carmody, Municipal Lighting Inspector, has reported against the adoption of the Siemens burners, as too costly and complicated for this country, where many parts of the lamp, specially liable to go out of order, cannot be replaced. The inspection of gas meters will begin in about a fortnight.

The Patria Italiana is now at open war with its "morose" subscribers. It published yesterday the names of three who are in arrear with their subscriptions, and threatens to do the same with the whole lot, if they do not book up before the Standard's birthday, May 1st. We have never resorted to such measures. In fact we have often to restrain the wishes of our subscribers to pay several years in advance, and have to remind them that a "Hopkins storm" might prevent us from "writing" off the account. In spite of this, they insist on paying in advance.

Oh! A colleague solemnly declares that the Board of Health have not met in quorum for three months. We hope it's not the case, but must admit that the last we heard or read of them was that they were discussing what 'fees' they would charge the public. After all, perhaps it is just as well they did not meet, or some doubtful sanitary measures might have been the result, as has occurred before now.

Mr. Guerrico lost 14,000 arrobes of hay lately on his estancia at San Nicolas, through the act of a rascally incendiary who has not been caught.

Dr. Rawson, the other night, in a lecture at the Women's Hospital said that cold climates develop the brain while hot ones cause mind and body to degenerate, and also shorten life.

The National Government has sent to Europe for a hydraulic engineer of eminence to come out and project a uniform scheme of irrigation for the Interior. This is really one of the most important schemes the Roca Administration has yet attempted. Irrigation means a more wondrous change for the Interior than even the railways can effect, and we shall have not only the blades of grass but every growing thing in the hitherto parched Interior shouting out "Viva Roca!" at the top of their voice.

The MacKay Zarzuela company made a very successful debut at the Opera House on Wednesday, before an audience which, if not very full, was decidely fashionable. The actors are all good.

Dr Molinas had his left eye nearly knocked out in the street the other day by a blow of a stone, flung by a ruffian who gave him the cool apology that 'the missile was not intended for his eye, but for that of another person," No policeman within a mile or two.

We regret to announce the death of Sta. Doña Dolores de Pacheco, sister-in-law of the Lord Mayor. This is the second death in this distinguished family within a very short time.

Our dates from Panama are to March 1st. Everything quiet in that direction, the Canal going ahead tolerably well, and all the little republics getting into their heads the idea of forming a Central American Union.

We have tried and re-tried the Crusty Port sent to us on Wednesday, but have come to no conclusion as to its merits as yet, as port is a wine which no connoisseur will risk his reputation by pronouncing on until he has swallowed at least a couple of dozen of it, some brands being very uneven.

The Pampa says that the Western Railway has completely lost its place as the best-managed railway in the province, adding that the Southern or Northern line is now entitled to that distinction. Turn about is fair play. It is not so long since the most tremendous daily abuse of the Northern and Southern lines was the fashion with our young 'cronista' friends. Times change, and we with them.

Agriculture is taking a prodigious spring in San Pedro and thereabouts. Two hundred paper dollars rent per square is now freely paid there for wheat farm lots, and the supply is far short of the demand.

There is a wine and water squeeze in the Custom-House, owing to the roof of one of the largest wine deposits being as leaky as a sieve. The peons say they prefer the wine neat,

ON 'CHANGE.

April 5th, 1883

Patacon	25.00
Cedulas A	100¼
Cedulas E	85½
National Bank Shares	105½

Cedulas Series E suffered a still further drop to-day and there is such a number of heavy sellers offering that it looks as if there is a ring formed to bear the stock. No news whatever has come from London, except what came by letter by last mail, but according to the advices from London per Nasmyth a change has come over the London money market, owing to the great pressure for gold for the New York market, and many think that owing to this the Cedula business will have to stand over for a while in London. The sales of Cedulas to-day amounted to 189,400, of which only 22,000 Series A, the strongest series at the moment; prices Series E opened cash at 86, dropped to 85½ and closed at 85¾.

In National Bank Shares, they say that two parties are still unloading, the sales reached 4,530: the bulk of the business being for the end of the month, opening at 105½, dropping to ¼ and closing at opening rate.

The Old Gas Co. has held its meeting, and we hear that a dividend of 7 o/o has been declared for the half year; the previous dividend for the previous half year was 7½, the stock rules very firm, but great complaint made by the shareholders, and with much reason, that the Municipality has not paid up.

The Montevidean cable continues cut, which is a monstrous inconvenience. Exchange on Montevideo this afternoon 3½ premium.

Respecting the National Government surveys of the lands between Colorado and Bahia Blanca and along the sea coast Mr. White, Chief of the Department, was interviewed to-day; he states that owing to the number of solicitudes sent into the Minister by old settlers on these lands the Government is sending Mr. Cascallares down to survey and mark out those lands held under Provincial Government titles, or occupied for years by settlers who are entitled to privilege. Mr. White thinks that in about three months all will be settled, and purchasers of lots from the Government will be able to get out their title deeds.

The French steamer Bearne arrived all right at St. Vincent yesterday and pushed on to Marseilles

To-morrow there will be a "juicio verbal" about a claim for salvage made by some officers of the Vermejo, for saving the Brit. barque that ran on Isla Verde last October. It appears the Argentine gunboat got the vessel off and hence, as nations do not claim salvage, there can be none in the present case. A claim for 30 tons of coal burnt by the steamer in getting her off has been admitted by the underwriters, but waived by the Argentine Government, the War Minister declining to accept anything.

Mr. Beckhaus, one of our leading barraqueros, bought last year three leagues of land near Bahia Blanca for $190,000 m/c per league, to-day he rented same at the rate of 20,000 per annum per league. Rather a good business this for a barraquero who goes into land investments.

The sales at the ring were as follows:—
Cedulas—
For cash A 22,000 at 100¼
For cash E 22,400 at 86-85½-¾
For April 30th E 130,000 at 8¾-86
For April 15th E 10,000 at 86
Sales, 189,400
National Bank Shares—
For cash 180 at 105-½
For April 7th 250 at 105-104¾
For April 30th 3,000 at 105½-⅝-¼-⅝-½
For May 31st 1,100 at 106⅝
Sales, 4,530

In stocks there was very little business done at afterhours. Cedulas continue weak, sellers 86. They say that there are two millions held up on borrowed money by the Bolsa. National Bank Shares some lots sold for end of month at 105½.

Exchange did not advance to-day as some expected. Some few American bills passed at 49⅝, and francs 5.20-22. There was nothing whatever new in the exchange market, and the rumour so current amongst the houses of the Government brokers having arranged a large credit said to have no good foundation. Exchange on Montevideo 2⅝ to 3 per cent., only a small amount passed at 3½. They said on 'Change, however, that a large amount of gold goes down this evening to Montevideo. Some say for the saladeristas who need the gold to pay for cattle; others say that the Government project for the National Uruguay Bank is being passed, and this causes continued stringency in that money market.

Coal, several arrivals, but nearly all goes up the river. Another coal cargo reported lost, coming to Yarrow, Hett and Co., of Montevideo.

Some very important telegrams from Europe received by mail to-day from Montevideo. Wheat in Liverpool has suffered a great fall, market forced.

Telegrams from New York also report dry hides down, fall serious.

A beautiful English yacht is on the way out the Meteon; she belongs to Mr Langworthy who is on board with his family; he comes to the Plate on a shooting trip. The yacht when last reported was at St. Vincent.

Captain Buckler, commander of R.M.S. Esk, was enveloped in friends when he entered the Bolsa; he sails on 15th and has 800 tons cargo engaged here, half bales and half cereals, and takes coffee at Rio. The La Plata is the next Royal Mail steamer, she is expected about 12th.

In July Mr Christophersen expects his new Montevidean steamer out, the La Platense, something surpassingly fine and larger than the Cosmos and other Montevidean steamers.

Mr Peter Gandolf, one of our leading Bolsa brokers, leaves on Saturday or Sunday for Europe on a pleasure trip to his native land. We wish him a most prosperous voyage and hope to see him soon back. Mr Emilio Martinez, another of our eminent Bolsa men, leaves in the same steamer, and will lounge about Europe for some time, to recruit his health.

The ss. Holbein, expected in from Rosario, sails for Europe on 7th.

Steamers cargoes—
Fivaller, left on the 2nd inst., took the following cargo for Barcelona and Marseilles:—

3,598 bales wool
2,643 dry hides
1,067 bags linseed
504 pipes tallow
12 bags seed
2 bultos dry meat
1 bulto tefidos

The Villarino from Patagones with 700 Indian prisoners is expected in the Boca in the morning.

Discount brokers report money tighter today than yesterday. The Provincial Bank discounted yesterday over seven millions, but the applications were much larger. Treasury Bills National Government, a good round amount discounted at 9 per cent.

The sale of 2000 salted hides at Rocca's saladero reported, 63 lbs at 47½ rls.

The Contribucion Directa Jury Central will sit for another month to hear appeals, according to decree of Provincial Minister of Hacienda.

The electoral dispute between Governor Rocha and Mr Gregorio Torres promises to amuse the public, as all the correspondence is to be published.

The sales at afterhours were:—
National Bank Shares—

The following important advices from Mendoza we received to-day:—

A considerable quantity of wheat of the new crop has recently changed hands, being bought up by the millers at about $2 per fanega—on the ground where it was thrashed. It must be borne in mind that grain is here referred to, which has been trodden out by mares on the ancient system, and simply afterwards "aventado a viento", meanwhile exposed to all the inclemencies of the season. After being passed through a proper winnowing machine on the new system, it will probably yield but about 50 o/o of good sound grain. The concession which the National Government has exacted from the railway companies of an abatement in the rate of freight charged on the products of the Cuyo provinces to Rosario will for the present have but little effect on the value of the grain produced here and in San Juan, as the carriage by cart to San Luis is too extravagantly high to allow of any chance of competing in the sale of the article with the product of more favored provinces.

Our advices from Tucuman this morning were as follows:—

For the last month we have had splendid weather; all sugar or caneplanters who were able to irrigate their plantations during the months of drought will be able to count on a splendid crop. The loss to those unable to irrigate is very great. Maize, wheat, rice, tobacco, &c. very scarce and at famine prices. Cattle too have perished in vast numbers, and as a consequence meat is poor and four times its usual price. The works on prolongation of rail to Salta are going ahead in splendid way. Mr. Stavelius is doing wonders with the 3,200 navvies he has at work. Although the "Mensagerias" do the journey of 70 leagues very regularly in 3½ days, while only a few years back six days was the time employed, some four years hence the "viage" from B. Aires to Salta will be done in 50 hours! The tramway is doing a roaring business and cannot but offer splendid returns to the daring Empresario Señor Castellanos. It will be a great boon to several of the principal sugar establishments.

Mr. Henry Burr, after an absence of nine years, has returned to the Plate on a short trip. He finds the country much improved. He explained to us the new machine for extracting burr from the wool. The process is to reduce the burr by heat to ashes. This is the first we have heard of this remarkable machine.

We have received a letter from a country subscriber about purchasing "Media Luna" camps. A correspondent in this paper, who signed "Veritas" and wrote about these camps, is requested to call at our office, should he desire to sell any of those lands. We hold the letter for him.

We believe in no part of the world are there higher rents paid than in this city. The new cigar shop at the corner of Florida and Rivadavia, Devotto's magnificent new house, pays $8,000 m/c a month rent merely for the cigar shop. This beats London, Paris, New York, Havannah or Vienna. We doubt if in any other city on the face of the globe is there to be found a cigar man paying such a rent. It really speaks the times we live in.

The largest and most valuable real estate sale ever known in this city will be the auction of the Parque Railway Station. An English gentleman called on us to-day to suggest that the site should be bought by a joint-stock company and large swimming-baths established. A really capital idea; but we doubt if the shares could be placed, as, since the Industrial Exhibition last year in the Once, native joint-stock companies have become all but impossible. The shareholders of that great national enterprise are still without their money.

We publish in another column the National Government decree about the Murrieta land question in Santa Fe. Congress will be asked by the National Government to approve of the sale by the Province of Santa Fe, which, of course, it will at once do.

Our office is crowded daily with people inspecting Mr. Chapeaurouge's new Map of Santa Fe. It is, without doubt, the best map of that Province out.

The financial advices per Nasmyth to 7th of March are most important:—

"The supply of money grew shorter to-day, Bank rate being freely paid for loans. For the discount of three months' bills the market quotation is also firmer, 2¾ per cent. Unless the New York exchange is telegraphed higher to-morrow a further amount of gold is thought likely to be shipped. The demand for that quarter is not likely to go on for many weeks, or to reduce the stock of gold here so materially as to cause the Bank to take strong defensive measures. Germany was lately on the point of supplying the American demand, but the reduction of the rate here seemed to divert it to London. No bullion movements were reported at the Bank of England to-day. Bar silver remains firm at 51⅛d., and Mexican dollar at 49⅞d. The pressure for money in the New York market appears to spring from an increased activity of business in America, and is so far satisfactory. Something of the kind has been looked for, and the New York Chronicle of last Saturday week expressly anticipated it on the ground that "a revival of business and a steady upward movement in stocks would naturally tend to make money active," at any rate, for a time. The same journal refers to a feeling of relief in American business circles at the unexpected passage through the Senate of the Tariff and Revenue Bill (which has since, with some modifications, become law). It also points out that the western floods have rapidly subsided, and that the railroads are now carrying the surplus of crops "still everywhere apparent and abundant." It appears from the American Customs returns for the seven months ended January last that the exports of grain and flour reached an aggregate value of over 26½ millions sterling, compared with 25 millions in the corresponding period last season. The visible supply, as our weekly telegrams testify, is large in the case of wheat, and that of maize is augmenting, the crop having been late. As to cotton, the receipts between September 1st and February 23rd were as much as 4,766,000 bales against 4,006,000 bales the year before, and the shipments 3,138,000 bales against 2,242,000 bales. Figures such as these present an obvious and solid basis for commercial revival; the railroad traffic returns are indeed showing the natural effect of such conditions, and are likely to do so more as the diminished floods allow more complete resumption of traffic. Business in America has been depressed by the tail of the previous season of comparatively poor crops and by the burden of excessive railroad building, which last year amounted to 11,343 miles, being 2,000 miles more than in 1881, and entailing the creation of about 567 million dollars of new stock and bonds. These will, no doubt, be reproductive works in future, but the amount of securities involved has been too enormous not to weigh upon the stock markets and depress the tone of business generally. Of late limits have been set to the construction of new roads, and in time the bonds will perhaps be absorbed, or at least more strongly held. The manufacture of rails in the U. States last year was 153,306 tons, or 8 o/o less than in 1881, when the demand for new roads had been forestalled. Altogether the character of American business has grown to be healthier and less inflated, while the large crops afford a basis for improvement. The bearing of these things upon the English money market is obvious. If American business is growing active money is naturally wanted, and the large exports of corn and cotton from that side seem to give America command over the money markets of Europe. Moreover, the floating of financial bills upon London—such as those said to be drawn in connection with the City of Winnipeg loan—is an easier operation when confidence in the course of affairs in the New World begins to revive on this side. The spring demand for money in the United States under ordinary circumstances is far less strong and lasting than the autumn demand; but we are bound to say it seems stronger than usual this year, although normal and healthy in its nature."

POR

Colegio del Caballito.

Se recomienda a los padres o encargados de niños que deseen ponerlos como pupilos, que visiten el citado Establecimiento, para cerciorarse de las cualidades y ventajas que ofrece.

Sus espaciosos dormitorios ventilados y en condiciones higiénicas irreprochables, sitio para recreo, jardin, huerta, y magnifica pileta de baño en la que sin riesgo alguno aprenden la natacion, hacen del "Seminario Ingles" uno de los mejores establecimientos de educacion, puesto que participa de las ventajas de campo y de la ciudad, con la cual unen dos lineas de tramways.

El plan de estudios, nomina de profesores y atencion asidua que se dispensa a los niños, satisfaran a las personas mas delicadas en materia de educacion.

The London and River Plate Bank, Limited, Buenos Aires.

This Company having purchased all the property, rights, patents, privileges and concessions in the Argentine, Uruguay and Paraguay Republics, formerly the property of the Companies known as the "Pantelephone," and the "Bell Perfeccionado," is prepared to sell or lease telephones or telephone lines or use in any part of the Argentine Republic, the Banda Oriental or Paraguay. It possesses exclusive rights for all of these countries for the Bell and Blake Telephones, known throughout the Plate as the Bell Perfeccionado,

The only instrument used in the United States

And by the United Telephone Company of England and by nearly all the principal Telephone Exchanges of the world.

The company is now receiving the largest shipments, it is believed, of telephone material ever obtained at one time by any Company existing, including 650 complete sets of telephone instruments, 1000 miles of wire, 40 miles of cable conductor, and switch board and Central Office appliances all of latest and best manufacture.

The Company is not subsidiary to any other, and is under no obligation to purchase its supplies from any particular source.

It proposes to furnish the public of Buenos Aires with the best telephonic instruments obtainable, and the best service practicable.

Thus far, in consequence of the lack of Bell instruments, only four hundred of its nearly one thousand subscribers have been supplied: The Pan instruments in use by the remainder will now as rapidly as possible be replaced by the Bell and a better service than any heretofore known in Buenos Aires will be the result.

Any information desired will be most cheerfully afforded on application in person, or by letter at the Company's offices 26 and 28 Calle San Martin.

2,500 fuertes legua

En nuestra casa

78—ALSINA—78

El 10 Martes de Abril 1883

A las 3 de la tarde

Remataremos a la mas alta postura y dinero de contado, por orden de su propietario.

El area de campo arriba indicado compuesto de 7 leguas y 88 cuadras, situado en la Provincia de Cordoba en el Rio Cuarto, pedania de Teyna y Peñas, campo de primer orden, sin medano, ni sierra, cubierto de pastos con una poblacion, existiendo alli un rodeo de vacas que servira para mostrar la calidad de la hacienda, nacidas en esos mismos campos, un pozo con abundante agua, por las fuertes vertientes que tiene.

Esta campo queda en el angulo que forman los ferro-carriles Central Argentino y Andino, y dista de las estaciones Chañares de la primera linea y Velez Sarsfield de la segunda, lindando por el Norte con los deshechos del Rio 3° por el Sud con Don Pablo Rodriguez, por el Este con Jose Ferreira, y por el Oeste con los Sres. Aramburu.

Creemos escusado demostrar las ventajas que ofrece un campo en estas condiciones y que puede comprarse por un precio tan bajo como el que se ha fijado para la venta que son dos mil quinientos ps. fuertes la legua cuadrada.

Titulos de primer orden.

Por mas informes ocurrir a nuestra casa, Alsina 78.

STUD FARM

OF THE

Province of B. Ayres

As the full number of animals to be covered has not yet been completed, the register still remains open at the office of the Secretary of the Committee, Moreno 146, it being understood that, in conformity with art. 9 of the rules, preference will be given to animals according to the dates on which they were registered.

CHARGES:

MARES---The charges for each mare admitted by the Committee to the sires

RIO NEGRO and NAUQUEN

are as follows: Mares of the same blood 15 pats; mestizas 20: criolas 30.

Light draught mares will be considered as of the same blood as 'El Rio Negro,' and heavy draught mares of the same blood as 'El Naunquen.'

COWS--The charges for each cow admitted to the bulls

Pilcomayo and Bermejo

are as follows: Cows of same breed 10 pats. mestiza 15.

Owners of animals must also pay $10 m/c per day for keep of such as require grain, and $5 per day for grazing animals.

The PEDIGREES of the blood stock are as follows:

SIRES

EL RIO NEGRO—Pure bred Trakehnen sire, imported per steamer Frankfurt, under the name of 'Yung Hausmeyer,' by 'Paulino de Fritter' and 'Hausmeyer,' the former of 'Eriwan' and the latter of 'Antinor.'

"PLOUGHS"

"PLOUGHS" "PLOUGHS"

Messrs M. Forrester & Co.

Beg to announce to the Public that they have lately introduced into this country with great success the

Celebrated Two and Three Furrow Ploughs

OF

ENGLAND

These WROUGHT IRON PLOUGHS fitted with breasts and shares of steel, have been extensively used in the Provinces and are destined to supersede the light and flimsy wood implements made by the Americans.

By means of a simple hand lever the onward movement of the animals raises the plough out of work at the ends, thus saving the driver the usual hard lifting connected with ploughing.

The two Furrow Plough is drawn by a pair of bullocks, thus doing double the work of a single plough and still with only one man.

These "Multiple" Ploughs are now almost universally employed in Australia and South Africa, and in recommending these implements Messrs. Forrester & Co feel confident that they are well adapted to the requirements of the Plate.

In order to procure these Ploughs orders should be sent in at once, or disappointment may be incurred.

BORWICK'S

BAKING POWDER

Used by thousands for making wholesome Bread, Cakes, Flour-Puddings, &c. Sold in 1d & 2d. packets and 6d. & 1s. boxes, by all Storekeepers and Grocers.

Invaluable at the Diggings and in the Bush, also on board Ship, as small loaves of the best Bread or Scones can be made in a few minutes without the aid of Yeast.

Private Ward, during the Zulu war, writes:—"I should just like you to see the real farmhouse bread that I bake! The oven is one dug in the ground, and is just large enough to hold our daily quantum of two loaves. We use flour, water, salt, and BORWICK'S BAKING POWDER. My bread often surprises me, it is so light, and white as snow. Some of our men will insist that I have been 'in the trade,' and nothing I can say will convince them to the contrary."

Four Gold Medals awarded. Manufactory:—G. BORWICK & SONS, Chiswell Street, London.
